

Science Vision and Principles

Children ask questions and explore their ideas collaboratively.

Children apply their learning to real life.

Children explore the world around them through hands on experiences.

Children have access to quality resources.

Children are motivated and use key vocabulary to speak with confidence.

